

Objective

Rogers connects youth to opportunities and helps to remove barriers to accessing education through Ted Rogers Scholarships.

Since launching Ted Rogers Scholarships in 2017, Rogers has supported more than 3,000 Canadian youth pursuing post-secondary studies.

The Ted Rogers Entrance Scholarship is aimed at students entering school, full-time to pursue a first bachelor's degree or first diploma program or first trades program at a Canadian university, college or trades school to help close the gap between tuition and additional fees (i.e. books).

Number, Value and Duration of Scholarships

Five hundred (500) scholarships are available.

Ted Rogers Entrance Scholarships are valued at $2,000 CAD for one academic year.

Only 800 submitted applications will be accepted for review. If 800 applications have been submitted prior to the application deadline, the portal will close, regardless of the date.

Eligibility

An eligible applicant must be:

- A Canadian citizen or permanent resident, age 25 or younger;
- Be planning to enter the first year into full-time studies in a first bachelor's degree or first diploma program or first trades program at a Canadian university, college or trades school in the 2024-2025 academic year;
- Have a minimum cumulative average of 70% (or equivalent) over the last three terms of available marks*. Non- academic courses such as career or personal development-related courses will not be considered.

Preference may be given to students from equity-deserving groups (Black, Indigenous Peoples, People of Colour, Persons with Disabilities, Women, 2SLGBTQ+).

Field of Study/Program

- There are no restrictions on the program of study or discipline.
- Program must be a minimum of two years in duration for a bachelor degree or diploma program or a minimum of one year in duration for a trades program.

Conditions/Restrictions

- Students who will commence their post-secondary studies in January 2025 are eligible.
- Students may have taken time off between graduation from high school or CEGEP (Province of Quebec) and commencement of their university or college studies.
- Students who have previously held a Ted Rogers Scholarship are not eligible to apply.
- Employees of Rogers cannot apply as there is a separate employee scholarship program.

Administrator

Scholarship Partners Canada (SPC), a division of Universities Canada, administers the scholarship program on behalf of Rogers Communications. Universities Canada's mandate is to facilitate the development of public policy on higher education and to encourage cooperation among universities and governments, industry, communities, and institutions in other countries. Universities Canada is associated with leading firms in nearly every sector of the economy through its provision of scholarship services and management of more than 130 different scholarship programs on behalf of corporations, government agencies and private foundations throughout North America. For additional information, please visit www.univcan.ca.

Rogers retains the right to change and/or end the sponsorship of the scholarship plan without notice.

Selection Process

The selection of scholarship recipients is made by SPC based on Rogers eligibility requirements. Rogers exercises no influence in the adjudication process. Once complete the decision is irrevocable.

Evaluation criteria:

- Academic performance

Preference may be given to students from equity-deserving groups.

All applicants will receive confirmation by email of the results of the selection process, once available.

Successful Applicants

Successful applicants will receive confirmation of their scholarship in late 2024. Recipients will be required to complete the online scholarship acceptance process and forward proof of registration from the educational institution they will be attending. It is the responsibility of the recipient to keep SPC informed of any changes to their contact information through the online portal.

Payment

- Scholarship payment(s) will only be issued upon completion of the scholarship acceptance process and review and acceptance of all required supporting documentation by SPC.
- SPC will forward payment of the scholarship directly to the educational institution on behalf of Rogers.
- It is the student's responsibility to ensure that payment of tuition fees is made within the defined time frame set by the educational institution regardless of the timing of the scholarship payment.
- Payment by the institution to the student will be made in accordance with the normal practice of the educational institution.
- Note that, depending on method of payment, receipt of payment can take 6-8 weeks following the applicant's acceptance of the award.

Application Process

1. Submit an online application by visiting <https://portal.scholarshippartners.ca/welcome/TRES/>.
2. An application with all supporting documentation must be submitted to SPC no later than the application deadline of 1:00 PM EST, June 12, 2024.
3. Documents will be reviewed by SPC staff to ensure all requirements have been met.
4. Receipt of applications will be acknowledged by email following processing by SPC.
5. It is the applicant's responsibility to ensure that all supporting documents have been received and accepted by visiting <https://portal.scholarshippartners.ca> to review their scholarship application status.
6. Once 800 applications have been submitted, no further applications will be considered, and the application portal will close, regardless of the date.

Supporting Documentation

The supporting documentation described below is required as part of this application. If any of these documents are not received and accepted, your application will be considered incomplete and will not be evaluated. Supporting documents must be received by SPC on or before 1:00 PM EST, June 12, 2024.

Transcript

Provide a transcript of the last three terms of available marks, that is, marks for the period of September 2022 to December 2023. If the applicant was not enrolled during this time, marks for the last three available terms will be accepted. Home school grades will only be accepted if they have been validated through a recognized, independent evaluation process.

Other

PLEASE NOTE: If any of the application requirements noted above are not met, the application will be considered incomplete.

As part of receiving a scholarship, recipients may be asked to participate in various promotional opportunities which may include media interviews, advertising (print, TV, digital, video) or social media. By accepting a scholarship, recipients should understand that they may be contacted by the Rogers team before or after the scholarships are announced.

Universities Canada will use your email as point of contact. To ensure future delivery of emails, please add awards@univcan.ca to your safe senders list.
